

Clinical Supervisor – School Counselling program

- Provide quality practice supervision and support to School Counsellors
- 3 x maximum duration contracts to end Term 4 2020
- Lewisham based – salary packaging available

About the Role

Our school counselling program has experienced unprecedented growth over the last 2 years and we require additional clinical supervisors to provide professional practice supervision, specialist advice and expert knowledge of best practice in a school counselling environment.

Working closely with a team of School Counsellors you will provide individual, team and group supervision; contribute to program goals; assist in the development and enhancement of case management and risk assessment skills; be supportive and provide a consultancy and support role for crisis response/critical incidents, whilst promoting and contributing to a culturally sensitive, child, and family centred safe practice framework.

We are seeking 3 experienced supervisors for a full-time maximum duration contract to the end of Term 4 2020.
